

Pickens County Schools

Job Descriptions

RTI Interventionist (49%)

Title/Position: Part Time Teacher

Retirement: n/a

Terms of Employment: 49% of 190 Days on Certified Salary Schedule

Reports to: Principal

Qualifications: Current valid Georgia Teaching Certificate

Evaluation: Performance of this job will be evaluated annually in accordance with provisions of the Board's Policy on evaluation.

The RTI Interventionist supports campus-based Response to Intervention (RTI) implementation through development of and consultation with general and special educators, development and implementation of student interventions, and coordination of RTI practices, data collection, and data review. He/She will be responsible for providing push-in and pull-out support, as well as overseeing paperwork for Tier III and Tier II students. The Interventionist will collaborate with staff and communicate monthly with administration regarding student progress and procedures.

Responsibilities:

- Support data reviews to assist teachers in making tier placement decisions.
- Support teachers in RTI data collection and record-keeping.
- Develop and implement Tier III interventions and supports. Design systems and tools to measure the effectiveness of Tier III support.
- Develop and maintain a calendar to ensure timely data analysis and student reviews.
- Collaborate with school and district Special Education teams as needed for student referrals. Attend multi-disciplinary team meetings as needed.-Other related duties as assigned.
- Strong ability to collect and analyze data to make instructional decisions
- Familiarity with a wide variety of research-based interventions and resources
- Work to increase student growth and achievement in content area of focus
- Meet desired goals/benchmarks on district-wide, state, and national assessments and measures of growth.

Note: The above description is illustrative of tasks and responsibilities. It is not meant to be all inclusive of every task or responsibility.*